III BOARD MEMBER REPORTS

1. Chair's Report

Monty Bryant, Chair, welcomed the

Sherris retirement date has now been announced publically. While Monty was looking forward to more time working with Sherri, he is very happy for her and her family and offered congratulations. Monty welcomed Brent Palmer back, and wished him good health.

On February 16, Monty was one of many who had the honour of bringing a welcome to 50th Anniversary 'Conversations Day 2021: Honouring the Past, Inspiring the Future'. It was truly inspiring to hear stories about how Camosun has affected the lives of our students and employees. Thank you to Al van Akker for taking part in a panel. A clip was shown of the congratulatory messages from Justin Trudeau, Prime Minister, and John Horgan, Premier. Monty commended all those who took part in organizing the Conversations Day.

2. President's Report

Sherris Bell, President thanked Monty for attending so many events at Camosun to bring a welcome. The video clip showed two of the speakers, but we also heard from Minister Anne Kang and alumni Adam Olsen, MLA, and Ernie Pinkerton, CEO of BC Transit. A panel of employees and a panel of Camosun students spoke of their experience at Camosun. The MC, Michaela Pereira, was a Camosun student. Total (m) -0.7 (n) -0.7 (i) -3.3 (n)
